Baantna

Where tradition meets nonconformity. Rich and rustic, Baantna was made to hold and adds real presence to your table. With the look of clay, amazingly it retains the smoothness and strength of porcelain.

■ It's light. I love the earthy color and how the matte finish allows my food to shine. ■

Ghera

Stark and beautiful, the deep blacks of Ghera absorb light that plays off the mixed matte and gloss finishes to dramatic effect. The food becomes the star among a constellation of calm.

As close as you can get to actual terracotta – without sacrificing the smooth, non-porous surface and mechanical resistance of porcelain. Tero has a rich, old world look, yet is firmly rooted in the now.

■ The moment we laid eyes on the Baantna line, we knew that was what we wanted. The color and patterns are so fun and really add to the experience and story we are trying to create. We also love how well it holds heat. ■
